

Manage Complaints and Appeals

Purpose:	This policy and procedure has been developed to ensure that AFHS Training has a system in place so complaints and appeals are recorded, acknowledged and dealt with fairly, efficiently and effectively.
Reference:	ASQA – Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 Manage complaints and appeals (Clause 6.1 – 6.6)
Who is responsible:	The GM is responsible for implementing and ensuring that this procedure is adhered to.
When:	Upon submission of a complaint or appeal.
Policy/ Process:	Clause 6.1. ~ The RTO has a complaints policy to manage and respond to allegations involving the conduct of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. the RTO, its trainers, assessors or other staff; b. a third party providing services on the RTO’s behalf, its trainers, assessors or c. other staff; or d. a learner of the RTO Clause 6.3. ~ The RTO’s complaints policy and appeals policy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. ensure the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the complaint and appeal process; b. are publicly available; c. set out the procedure for making a complaint or requesting an appeal; d. ensure complaints and requests for an appeal are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable; and e. provide for review by an appropriate party independent of the RTO and the complainant or appellant, at the request of the individual making the complaint or appeal, if the processes fail to resolve the complaint or appeal. Informal Complaints: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Where possible all non-formal attempts shall be made to resolve the complaint. AFHS Training encourages open communication and an environment of trust. Therefore, any student with a complaint is encouraged to raise the matter directly with the other party concerned to attempt to resolve the issue mutually or they can contact The GM. 2. Advice, discussions and general mediation may take place in relation to the issue and complainant/student complaint 3. The GM will note the informal complaint on the Complaints and Appeals Register accordingly. The GM will determine and ensure that the appropriate action will be taken if necessary. 4. Any staff member can be involved in this informal process to resolve issues but if the student wishes to place a formal complaint, then the following process must be followed below.

Manage Complaints and Appeals

Formal Complaints:

1. Any student, potential student or 3rd party may submit a formal complaint to AFHS Training with the reasonable expectation that all complaints will be treated fairly with integrity and privacy. There is no cost for the complaints process unless it is referred to a 3rd party.
 - a. A complaint may have a direct connection to AFHS Training, its trainers/ assessors or other staff
 - b. a third party providing services on AFHS Training's behalf, its trainers, assessors or other staff or
 - c. a student of AFHS Training
2. A student can submit a formal complaint by completing the 'Complaints and Appeals Form' located on AFHS Training' website or they can obtain a copy by calling AFHS Training on 1300 337 199
3. All formal complaints must be submitted to The GM and contain as many details as possible:
 - a. Date complaint was submitted
 - b. Name of complainant
 - c. Nature of complaint
 - d. Date of the event which led to the complaint
 - e. Attachments (if applicable)
4. Once a complaint has been received, the information will be inserted into the 'Complaints and Appeals Register' spreadsheet which is monitored by the GM until resolved. The information to be inserted and retained on the register includes:
 - a. Date the complaint was submitted
 - b. Name of complainant
 - c. Description of complaint
 - d. Determined resolution
 - e. Date of resolution
5. Once a complaint has been logged in the 'Complaints and Appeals Register', the CEO will be notified of the complaint and will be provided with all relevant documentation related to the matter.
6. The GM and CEO will confer and decide on the appropriate action in order to ensure a successful resolution is attained.
7. The relevant staff member/s or contract trainer/assessors will be informed on the complaint and they will have the opportunity to present their side of the matter.
8. Once a decision has been reached, The GM will notify all of the relevant parties involved of the decision and outcome which is to be concluded in writing within 15 working days from the date the complaint was first received. Within the notification of the outcome, the student will be advised that they have the right to appeal the decision made by AFHS Training. Students will be referred to the appeals procedure as outlined below.
9. The GM will ensure that AFHS Training will act immediately on any substantiated complaint. If the internal or external complaint handling or appeal process results in a decision that supports the student, AFHS Training must immediately implement any decision and/or corrective and preventative action that is required and advise the student of the outcome.
10. The outcome will be placed on the 'Complaints and Appeals Register' and copies of relevant documentation will be stored in the SMS.
11. The student has the right to be accompanied by any person of their choice during the complaints or appeals process.

Manage Complaints and Appeals

Clause 6.2. ~ The RTO has an appeals policy to manage requests for a review of decisions, including assessment decisions, made by the RTO or a third party providing services on the RTO's behalf.

Formal Appeals:

1. If the student is not satisfied with the outcome from the formal complaint, then they have the right to appeal the decision made by AFHS Training where reasonable grounds can be established.
2. The areas in which a student may appeal a decision made by AFHS Training may include:
 - Assessment conducted
 - Deferral, suspension or cancellation decisions made in relation to a student's enrolment
 - Or any other conclusion/decision that is made after a complaint has been dealt with by AFHS Training in the first instanceTo activate the appeals process, the student must submit an 'appeal application' by completing the 'Complaints and Appeals Form' located on AFHS Training' website or they can obtain a copy by calling AFHS Training on
3. The student is required to provide a summary of the grounds that the appeal is based on and the reason why they feel that initial decision made is unfair within 10 working days from the time they received the outcome for their initial complaint. Help and support with this process can be gained from the GM.
4. Once the appeal has been received, The GM and CEO will then determine the validity of the appeal and where necessary, organise a meeting with all parties involved in the matter and attempt to seek resolution where appropriate.
5. The process for all formally lodged appeals will begin within 15 working days from the date that the appeal was lodged.
6. The GM will ensure that AFHS Training acts on any substantiated appeal immediately.
7. The CEO and GM will review the initial documentation of the complaint and shall make a decision based on the grounds of the appeal.
8. The student will be notified in writing within 20 working days from the initial lodgement of the appeal of the outcome with reasons for the decision. The 'Complaints and Appeals Register' will be updated. The student will also be provided the option of activating the external appeals process if they are not satisfied with the outcome.

Informal Assessment Appeals:

1. If a student wishes to appeal an assessment they are required to notify their assessor in the first instance. Where appropriate, the assessor may decide to re-assess the student to ensure a fair and equitable decision is made. The assessor will be required to complete a written report regarding the re-assessment outlining the reasons why assessment was or was not granted.

Formal Assessment Appeals:

If the informal assessment appeals process is still not to the students satisfaction, the individual can formally lodge an appeal by completing and submitting the 'Complaints and Appeals Form' to The GM which can be downloaded from.

2) AFHS Training' website or the student can obtain a copy by ringing the office 1300 337 199

- 3) The GM will document the information in the Complaints and Appeals

Manage Complaints and Appeals

Register and obtain details from the assessor and any other parties involved.

- 4) A decision will be made regarding the appeal which will either indicate that the assessment decision remains as is or, details of a possible re-assessment by a 'third party'. The third party will be another assessor appointed by AFHS Training.
- 5) The student will be notified by writing within 20 working days from the initial lodgement of their appeal regarding the outcome with reasons for the decisions, and the 'Complaints and Appeals Register' updated. The student will also be provided the option of activating the external appeals process if they are not satisfied with the outcome

External Appeals

1. If the student is still dissatisfied regarding the outcome/decision made that AFHS Training has provided, they may wish to refer the matter to an external/independent/third party mediator at their own expense.
2. Appeals can relate to assessment decisions and they can also relate to other matters such as the decision to exclude a student from a training program. Students should be encouraged to resolve complaints and appeals through the AFHS Training complaint mechanism prior to consulting external parties.
3. If the student is not satisfied by the complaints and appeal outcome, they can contact:

Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria (DSCV)
4/456 Lonsdale Street
Melbourne Vic 3000
Telephone: 03 9603 8370
Toll free: 1800 658 528
Email: dscv@justice.vic.gov.au

This final stage will be addressed within 30 days.

Outcomes from the DSCV mediation in relation to a grievance will be implemented immediately.

Clause 6.4. ~ Where the RTO considers more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, the RTO:

- a. informs the complainant or appellant in writing, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required; and
- b. regularly updates the complainant or appellant on the progress of the matter.

Extensions

If more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, The GM will inform the individual in writing, including reasons why more than 60 days are required and regularly update the individual on the progress of the matter.

In most cases this would not be necessary as the timeframes identified in the above processes keep well under 60 days. It may need to happen if an appeal was to reach an external stage.
